Dear Donor,

I hope this message finds you in good spirits. We are thrilled to share exciting news about an upcoming event that holds special significance for our community and our congregation's future.

On Saturday, February 15, 2025, Sweet Gilliard Production will proudly present James Weldon Johnson's "God's Trombones" at Kingston Lake Education and Business Center, Loris, SC. This powerful collection of poetic sermons and narratives celebrate the African American spiritual journey, accompanied by a soul-stirring choir and Zeb Harrison's Brass Ensemble. The doors will open at 4:45 PM, with the performance beginning at 6:00 PM. Tickets are priced at $35 per person.

This event is not just a cultural gathering but also a pivotal fundraiser for the Kingston Lake Education & Business Center. A tribute will be made to honor the memory and legacy of Sister Mildred Welch, a visionary who believed in the mission to serve the churches and community endeavors of the Kingston Lake Association.

To make this event a success and support our goal, we invite churches, businesses and individuals to participate in our souvenir booklet. This booklet will not only be a cherished keepsake for attendees but also a fantastic opportunity for you to showcase your business and demonstrate support for meaningful artistic and cultural endeavors.

By advertising in our booklet, you can:

1. Reach a captivated and enthusiastic audience.
2. Demonstrate your commitment to supporting cultural richness in the Loris and surrounding areas.
3. Connect with potential customers who value the arts and community growth.

We offer a range of advertising options to fit various needs and budgets. Your involvement would greatly support our efforts to enhance our building infrastructure and continue providing a welcoming space for worship and our numerous religious and community activities.

Thank you for considering this opportunity to support "God's Trombones" and our endeavor to update the Kingston Lake Education and Business Center. We look forward to possibly partnering with you and making a lasting impact together.

Warm regards,

Rev. Thessalonia Graham
Moderator, Kingston Lake Association
